EXPERIENCE:

MANAGEMENT

As a Legal Content Team Lead with LexisNexis from May 2009 - July 2010, I successfully managed a team of 24 attorney editors, which was responsible for producing electronic case law summaries and headnotes from current Federal judicial opinions. I ensured that all internal e-document standards were met and all production goals were exceeded, and that all HR issues were resolved.

As a Lead Caselaw Editor with LexisNexis from May 2002 - April 2009, I assisted in managing a team of 20+ attorney editors, including managing a pilot offshoring project where I coordinated e-document analysis and production with off-shore teams in India and the Philippines. I ensured that all personal and team e-document goals were exceeded and that new editors were properly trained and mentored.

LEGAL PRACTICE

As a Legal Officer with Mediators Without Borders from August 2010 - present, I advise the CEO and leadership team and I develop and manage legal and corporate projects in conjunction with the CEO and leadership team.

As a solo practitioner, I represent clients in the areas of state contract and family law, estate planning, and small business formation and management. As a certified mediator, I facilitate mediations between parties in dispute and draft final settlement agreements for court filing.

EDUCATION

As part-time Adjunct Professor with Colorado Technical University from April 2011 - present, I teach Masters level courses in mediation and arbitration to a diverse group of students, utilizing interactive Live Chat resources to provide online instruction, feedback and evaluation.

As a part-time Instructor and Internship Supervisor with Mediators without Borders from August 2010 - present, I teach mediation and arbitration courses to an international group of students in the classroom and online, and I supervise student internships in ADR practices.
